There are a number of greetings sentiments also included in the kit.

I have chosen to add one to the back of the card, a 2nd to the inside of the card.

I will use these to write a greeting on the card.

And a 3rd to the easel stopper.

There are blank greetings sentiment panels included too.

I have also added diamante crystals to the crown on the front of the card.

There are also some decoupage elements to use if you wish and I have added two crowns to the easel stopper too.
